Part B	能力提升
① 完形填空
English names and Chinese names are quite	different in some1 ways, but it's not hard for us to know.
Unlike Chinese, most English people have _	2 names. One is their family name, and both of the other names are given names. T	heir family name is3 the given name.They use Mr., Mrs. or Miss with the4_	name, but they never use 5 with the first name. For example, we can6	a man named James Allan Green Mr.
Green, 7 we can't call him Mr.	James or Mr. Allan. People usually use
Jim8 James. Jim is short for James be	cause it's to remember.
But Chinese names are the opposite. A girl	with the name Han Limei her family name Han first. Of course, she can be call	led Ah Mei for short in China if you wish.

In England, traffic keeps on the left. Cars, buses and bikes all move on the left side of the road. So when you are in England, you must be very careful in the streets. Before you cross a street you must stop and look both ways. Look right and look left and look right again. If the traffic lights are red, the traffic must stop. Then the people on foot can cross the road. If the traffic lights are green, the traffic can go. People on foot mustn't cross.

In the morning and in the evening, when people go to or come back from work, the streets are very busy. Traffic is the most dangerous (危险的).

When you go by bus in England, you have to be careful, too. Always remember the traffic moves on the left. Have a look first or (否则) you will go the wrong way.

In many English cities, there are big buses with two floors. You can sit on the second floor. From there you can see the city very well. It's very interesting.
