Sometimes you may want to use a public computer, for example, in an Internet cafe, a library or at an airport. That's when it's especially important to be smart and safe.

Don't save! When you want to enter a social networking website or your email, the system will ask you, "Do you want to save this password?" Never choose "Yes" when you are working on a public computer.

Log out(退出)! Make sure you do not just close the browser(浏览器) when you want to leave a website. You should always “log out” of the website when you finish your task.

Close windows! If you need to walk away from the computer for any reason, you should close all the windows on the computer first. Don’t leave any information that other people shouldn’t see on the screen.

Watch out! Be careful about people looking at the screen over your shoulder. Ask them politely to go somewhere else so you can use the computer privately.

46. When you use a public computer, it’s important to be _____.
A. smart and safe B. strong and honest
C. young and polite D. pretty and happy
47. When you want to leave a website, you should _____.

C

Running regularly helps you keep fit. That’s why millions of people run several days a week and regularly take part in races. While running, some runners can do something good for others. They collect money for their run and give it to a charity(慈善机构). Some charity runners run a full marathon(马拉松) dressed in colorful clothes to collect more money for their charity.

Travis Snyder from the US had been thinking for some time about an idea of running for fun. Professional runners and other people could run together. In 2012 he organized the first “Color Run—The happiest 5K (kilometer) on the earth”. It started with 6,000 runners in Phoenix, Arizona, and is now held every year in many cities around the world, with millions of runners. The idea is simple: you start wearing something white, and at every kilometer people spray and paint you in different colors: 1K is yellow, 2K is blue, 3K is green, 4K is pink, and 5K is brown. Why do people go on a Color Run? Because “it’s healthy, fun and colorful”, as one runner Pierre Hoffman said.

51. Some runners run a full marathon in colorful clothes in order to _____.
A. live a simple life B. win the game
C. collect money for charity D. build up friendship

52. Who organized the first “Color Run”?
A. Pierre Hoffman. B. Travis Snyder.
C. Professional runners. D. Charity workers.
53. How many runners took part in the first “Color Run” in Phoenix, Arizona?
A. 6,000. B. 5,000. C. 4,000. D. 3,000.
54. What color are the runners painted when they reach the end of the “Color Run”?
A. Yellow. B. Blue. C. Green. D. Brown.
55. Which of the following could be the best title for the passage?
A. Running for Fun. B. Holding a Race.
C. Different Runners. D. Colorful Clothes.

D

One of my favorite things to do in my free time is snow skiing, and as a middle-aged man, I have recently started snowboarding as well. Luckily, there are about five ski resorts near my hometown, so there are plenty of places to ski.

In order to ski, you need some basic equipment including snow skis, ski poles, ski boots, goggles and some warm ski clothing. I bought my equipment last year after the season was over when everything was on sale.

When I go skiing, I load my skis on the top of my car and drive to the nearest ski resort. I usually buy a season ski pass that allows me to go skiing as often as I want. When I arrive at the ski resort, I put on my ski boots and skis and head directly for one of the ski lifts. The ski resort has a number of ski runs for beginners, intermediates and expert skiers. Personally, I usually ski down intermediate runs that have a few moguls(隆起点) to test my skills. I sometimes lose my balance or control and fall down on the runs, but that is part of the fun of skiing. I always have to be careful not to run into anyone as I go down the ski runs.

Recently, I’ve decided to take up snowboarding, but it’s taking a little time to get the hang of it. Snowboarding is becoming more and more popular now that it is an Olympic event.

56. What does the author like doing in his spare time?
A. Visiting his hometown. B. Watching the Olympics.
C. Car driving. D. Snow skiing.
57. Why did the author buy his equipment after the season?
A. Because it was cheaper. B. Because it was available then.
C. Because he had a season ski pass. D. Because he wanted to improve his skills.
58. What can we learn about the author from the third paragraph?
A. He finds fun challenging himself on skiing runs.
B. He usually runs to the ski resort in ski boots.
C. He always runs into someone when skiing.
D. He often chooses the runs for beginners.
59. What does the underlined phrase “get the hang of” in the fourth paragraph probably mean?
A. Watch. B. Learn.

- C. Run out of. D. Catch up with.
60. Why do more and more people enjoy snowboarding?
- A. It is much easier than snow skiing.
- B. People have more free time nowadays.
- C. It has become an event of the Olympics.
- D. There are more resorts for snowboarding.

When you want to go shopping, decide how much money you can spend for new clothes. Think about the kind of clothes you really need. Then look for those clothes on sale.

There are labels(标签) inside all new clothes. The labels tell you how to take care of your clothes. The label for a shirt may tell you to wash it in warm water. A sweater label may tell you to wash it in cold water. The label on a coat may say "dry-clean only". Washing may ruin(损坏) this coat. If you do as the directions(说明) say on the label, you can keep your clothes looking their best. Many clothes today must be dry-cleaned. Dry-cleaning is expensive. When buying new clothes, check to see if they will need to be dry-cleaned. You will save money if you buy clothes that can be washed.

You can save money if you buy clothes that are well-made. Well-made clothes last longer.

They look good even after they have been washed many times. Clothes that cost more money are not always better made. They do not always fit better. Sometimes less expensive clothes look and fit better than more expensive clothes.

My friend had a new haircut(发型). It looked so cool. When I got home, I asked my mom for a haircut. "Could you do it today?" I asked very politely. But she was busy. "Peter, it takes a long time to cut your hair. We need to be very careful to get it just right. Maybe I can do it on the weekend," she said.

But I couldn't wait! I went back to my room and took out my school scissors(剪刀) to cut my hair off. Then, I looked in the mirror and found one side was shorter than the other. It was terrible. I started to cry.

Mom walked in. She looked at my new haircut and I was unhappy. "Mom, are you mad because it's ugly?" I asked. "No, I'm not mad, son. I'm just unhappy because you weren't patient and you didn't want to wait," she replied.

My mom helped me with my hair to make it look better. Then she said, "Sometimes we need to wait. All good things come to those who wait."

51. Who had a cool new haircut?

When I was a girl growing up, I cannot ever remember either my mom or my grandma wasting food.

Anything we didn't eat up at one meal was leftovers(剩菜). I can remember my grandma making a huge pot of potatoes. We would all eat until we were full enough, but there were always about half of the potatoes left over. A few days later, Grandma would take those potatoes out of the fridge, boil some noodles, add some vegetables and mix them all together. And I also remember when I watched my mom fry bacon for us in the mornings, she would always take the oil carefully and pour it into a bottle. Then she would use it later to add flavor to so many other dishes. I was an adult before I realized that potatoes didn't actually taste like bacon!

I learned their lessons well, and after I grew up, I tried to never waste food myself. I always planned the week's meals ahead of time and only bought what was on my shopping list so that nothing went to waste. Every meal went into our stomachs and any leftovers were later eaten by either myself, my boys, my husband or my dogs. To me, throwing food into the bin was just wrong.

However, when it comes to living, there are no leftovers. Life is just like a feast. Each moment that you don't live is lost forever. Life cannot be saved or stored. Each day is a fresh beginning. Live each moment of your life to the fullest, then.

56. What did the writer's grandma usually do with the leftover potatoes?
A. She would use them to fry bacon.
B. She would get some oil from them.
C. She would make potato pies with them.
D. She would put them in the fridge and eat them later.
57. Why did the potatoes cooked by the writer's mom taste like bacon?
A. Because she was good at cooking bacon.
B. Because she mixed the bacon with potatoes.
C. Because she put potatoes into the bacon containers.
D. Because she cooked potatoes with the oil from frying bacon.
58. According to the passage, how did the writer save food?
A. By shopping ahead of time.
B. By selling leftovers to others.
C. By planning the next week's food.
D. By following her mother's shopping list.
