What do you usually do after school? Do you do your homework, watch TV, or play computer games? Or maybe you like to do something different? Now, let's take a look at what students in America do after school.

The students in America finish their school at about 3:00 in the afternoon, so they have much time to do other things after school.

They often do a lot of activities or go to clubs. There are many ball games like basketball, football, baseball, and so on. There are also many kinds of clubs for students to join, such as dance clubs, art clubs, writing clubs and other interesting clubs.

Students can have fun, do exercise or learn something outside class. For example, some students can learn how to cook or make clothes, while others might meet up with friends to go for a walk or ride bikes. And still, some might enjoy reading books or trying out new hobbies to keep themselves busy and happy.

6. American students finish their classes at about _____.
A. 11:00 am
B. 12:00 at noon

A. Do their homework.
B. Play computer games together.
C. Watch their favourite TV shows.
D. Attend various activities or go to clubs.
8. _____ are NOT mentioned in the passage.
A. Art clubs
B. Music clubs
C. Dance clubs
D. Writing clubs
9. Some American students might _____ with their friends after class.
A. learn how to make clothes
B. cook meals
C. take a walk in the park
D. attend extra classes to study more
10. The passage mainly tells us _____.
A. the benefits of doing different activities
B. the importance of after-school activities
C. the different types of school clubs in America
D. what American students do after school

I used to be shy, and my first day at the new school was challenging. The teacher asked me to write my name on the blackboard.

I knew how to do it, but standing there with everyone looking at me made me nervous. I was unable to write a single letter. “Write your name,” the teacher said gently. But my mind went empty. “Just forget about us and write your name,” said the teacher. I wanted to write but my hand refused to move.

The other students started whispering (低语) to each other, and I felt my face turned red.

The teacher came over to me and put her hand on my shoulder. She smiled and asked me what my name was. “Richard Wright,” I whispered. I spelled my name very quickly. She nodded and said, “Now, can you write it?” I nodded, feeling a little more confident.

I wrote my name down quickly and correctly. “Good boy. You may go to your seat,” said the teacher.

I felt relaxed as I walked back to my seat. I can still remember my teacher's words and encouragement now. They meant a lot to me.
