Weekends $40 $20 (children under 7)

Theme (主题): It tells the story of a boy named Ne Zha who overcomes (克服) difficulties and his dark past to become a hero.

 Film Review

It is one of my favourite movies. In the movie, I can feel family love and friendship. They are very important to us. When I watched these touching scenes (场景), I couldn't help but cry.

—Anna

I really like the character of little Ne Zha with his black eyes, sharp teeth and big mouth. He is a little hero who saves all the people in the village. We can learn from him to fight for our lives.

—Rick

Last Sunday, I went to see it with my six-year-old brother. He likes the wonderful scenes of the movie. The dialogue is so funny that it always makes me laugh. We both want to see it again.

—Grea

Text 3

I used to be shy, and my first day at the new school was challenging. The teacher asked me to write my name on the blackboard.

I knew how to do it, but standing there with everyone looking at me made me nervous. I was unable to write a single letter. “Write your name,” the teacher said gently. But my mind went blank. “Just forget about us and write your name,” said the teacher. I wanted to write but my hand refused to move.

The other students started to whisper (低语) to each other, and I felt my face turn red.

The teacher came over to me and put her hand on my shoulder. She smiled and asked me what my name was. “Richard Wright,” I whispered. I spelled my name quickly. She nodded and said, “Now, can you write it?” I nodded, feeling a little more confident.

I wrote my name down quickly and correctly. “Well done. You may go to your seat,” said the teacher.

I felt relieved as I walked back to my seat. I can still remember my teacher's words and encouragement now. They meant a lot to me.

11. On the first day at the new school, the author was asked to _____.
A. talk about his family B. tell his classmates a story
C. stand in front of the class D. write his name on the blackboard
12. The author couldn't do what the teacher asked him to do at first because _____.
A. he was very nervous B. his hand couldn't move
C. he didn't know how to do it D. he wasn't confident in his handwriting
13. What was the teacher like according to the text?
A. Kind. B. Funny. C. Creative. D. Impatient.

14. The author felt _____ when he returned to his seat.
- A. ashamed B. excited
- C. relieved D. angry
15. Which is the best title for the text?
- A. My School Life B. My First Teacher
- C. My First Day at the New School D. My First Experience with Writing

第二节 (5 题,每题 2 分,共 10 分)

阅读下面短文,从短文后的选项中选出可以填入空白处的最佳选项。

Are you going to high school to continue your studies? What will you do if you can't? Don't worry. Vocational schools are open for you because our country needs people with special skills.

1 Firstly, to promote (促进) the development of vocational education, our country spends a lot of money on it. So you only need to pay half of the tuition fees (学费). Secondly, here you will learn lifelong practical skills, while some other students may still struggle with their weak subjects during the three-year high school period. Why? 2 And finally, when others are still uncertain about their future, you can already support yourself. And success may come sooner than you think.

People take different roads because they have different potentials (潜力). 3 Go to high school if you believe that you can go farther academically. 4

5 Remember, always choose what suits you best.

- A. Go to vocational school if you are better at making things with your hands.
- B. Compared with regular high schools, vocational schools have more advantages.
- C. In a word, carefully consider what kind of person you are.
- D. Because they didn't choose the school that suits their strengths.
- E. So different students should choose different schools.
