The name of my school is Jingwai Mingde Primary School. It's in Yunnan Province, China. My school is not old. It has a history of about fifteen years. It is not very big. There are about 1,000 teachers and students in it. But I think my school is really cool! In my school, every class has a piece of land for students to grow vegetables and fruits. With the help of our teachers, we look after the vegetables and fruits twice a week. When the vegetables and fruits are ripe (成熟的), we can eat them. They are healthy and nice to eat.
